Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday - We spend our days at one of the best Day schools in North Carolina. On Monday we grumble, on Friday we rejoice, but on any given day we come to work hard and learn and also to laugh and play. No matter what day of the week, students and faculty at Providence Day are faced with busy schedules. Let us refresh your memory...

Tuesday: don't forget to set your alarm a little earlier for that morning SAT review course. Oh, by the way, Wednesday: take a break from studying and come to Young Life at eight o'clock. On Thursday: mark your calendars, we have a Beta Club meeting during lunch. But don't worry, the weekend is coming soon. Saturday: we have Spring Fling and Sunday: well... we'll just let you get caught up!

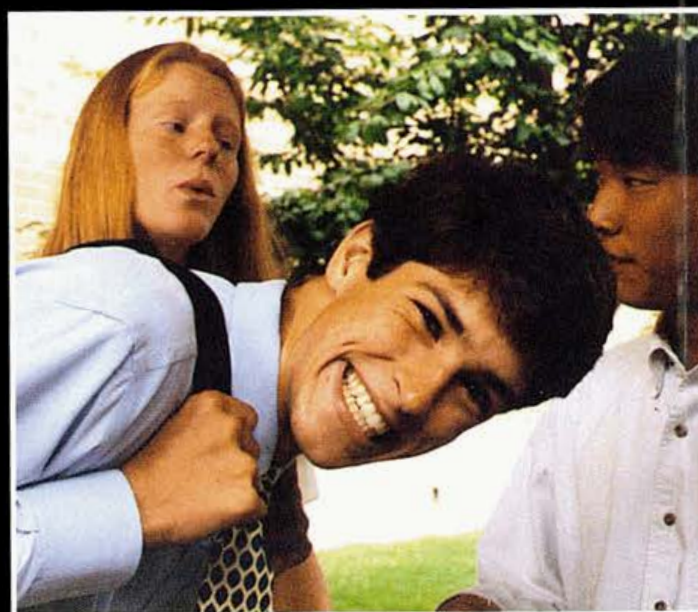

Each of you strives to accomplish your own schedule, but everyone knows that we are...

Q: How does it feel to be Senior Class President?

A: "It is an amazing feeling to be a Senior. So many people look up to you for answers and for setting the trends. Because I guess, if Seniors do it, then it must be okay. Also, you have waited for so long to get those privileges and when you are finally there, you feel special. Having kids peek around the corner to try and steal a view of what's going on in the Senior lounge is great as well. It makes you feel sort of important. Being class President enables me to get to know everyone better, and I feel that when things are bothering someone, they tell me about it. I truly feel that being class President is an honor. My goals are to help everyone to have their best Senior year possible and to help make our class have a lasting memory of Providence Day."

much!

6:00: After 1 hour, I take a break and play the piano/Homework

7:00: Dinnertime!(It's always good)/Wash dishes/
Play "Baby Shark" w/ my little host sister

8:00: Babysitting in the neighborhood

1:00: Still sleeping/At 1:30, alarm goes off and I call my friend in Germany(7:30am), before she goes to school, to wish her a happy birthday

Q: What does it feel like to come to not only a new school, but to a new country with new people and friends?

A: "It is fear and happiness in one. You are afraid of leaving your family and your friends because you do not know what you will expect in the new country. But then, there is the happiness to meet new people, different people, making friends and seeing and trying new things that make your mind open and help to find your opinion. The faculty is wonderful and I appreciate every time they offer their help. It would be too long to tell about everybody who is important to me.
So, I just want to thank you all for the rides, for explanations, for talks, and for smiles."

8:00: Relax

Q: How does the Beta Club affect you and your members?

A: "I feel better informed about my community and that I personally have a stake in its well-being. I meet people through Beta Club who may live a short distance from where I live and work but whose lives are very different. The best hope that we have for changing our communities and our world is that people can come to know one another on a person-to-person basis. It's much harder to feel connected to someone we have never met. I am optimistic that each individual can make a difference."

Q: Explain what you think is positive about the environment at P.D., including Student Life.

A: "Providence Day's overall environment is positive.

Everyone from administration, to teachers, to peers cares about everyone else in one way or another. If you were ever to have a problem, there would be someone you could talk with about it. From past experiences, PDS is the best learning environment for its students; everything is right there for you if you just ask. Student Life at P.D. is crazy! It is basically everyone going different directions at different times. Everyone always has a thousand things to do, but somehow, we all manage to have a good time!"

I hope life holds in store everything all of us are hoping for. Don't be afraid to go after your dreams.

Unfortunately, I haven't been here for years and years to build up special memories. I do want to thank everyone who helped to make me feel welcome. Thanks! Those who I mention now are only a few:

Elizabeth Gallaher: You were the first one to welcome me. You made the thought of Senior Venture and the first day of school a bit more bearable.

Elizabeth McLeod: I was so nervous those first few moments of Senior Venture. You'll never know how much it meant to me when you asked me to sit with you on the bus.

Alexis: It was fun getting to know you during The Good Doctor. Thanks for all the rides home!

Shelton: You never forgot to say, "Hi!", and ask how things were going.

To my AP Government Class: It was nice getting to know all of you. Impeachment can be wonderful, don't you think? The Hammer will pound no more. I had a great time only...please don't leave me in Georgetown again! Ginny, Laura, and Megan, you were great roommates, and I enjoyed getting to know you.

Megan: CNN!

I have to mention my little sister, Hannah. You are the best. Don't worry, I'll come see you next year, and you can visit me at college!

The Good Doctor Cast: I had a great time. All of you did a super job!

Mrs. Booker: Thanks for giving me the chance to be in the play. It was easy to act under your instructions.

Für meine deutsche Klasse: Amber und Grier - Ich wünsche euch viel Glück für das nächste Jahr. Es war schön, ihn kennenzulernen. Geoff und Daniel - Endlich! Viel Spaß bei der Uni. Vergiß nicht eure Deutsch!

Herr Schneider: Ich denke, daß mein Deutsch viel besser als vorher ist. Danke! Ich habe viel gelernt und hoffentlich werde ich einen Tag sehr gut sprechen.

To everyone who participated in Big Brother Big Sister and Extended Day: I'm really glad so many of you took the time to participate. I know all the lower school children loved getting to spend time with you. I hope you can keep it up next year!

Mrs. Murdock: I enjoyed your class. When I'm a big International Lawyer or in Politics, I'll look you up.

Ms. Chapoton: Thanks for letting me help out with Big Brother Big Sister. I like to think I might have made a difference in someone's life, and it was great getting to know you.

Mrs. Smythe: You are a great friend. I will never forget how welcome you, Dr. Beatie, and everyone else "up front" made me feel. Thanks for being there. I'll stop by one Monday!

Juan Chang

I've lived for 18 years in this planet. During that period I saw many things and did many things. Many of them I remember and many I do not. I would like to thank everyone who has helped me in all I do. I want to thank my mom, dad, and sister. You are the only family I have. I thank my abilities, I would be lost without them.

I would like to dedicate a few lines to some important individuals and moments in my life.

As always, to all my boys(theKP, theKG), wait for me I am coming back. Don't spend it all in one place. Keep it like it was. We be chillin' soon. To the good things we enjoyed, I say let's do it again. The special moments, don't save them, just enjoy them. New York City, Queens, Brooklyn, Woodside, Fort Lee, Leonia, Manhattan, New Jersey, L.A. Don't break the connections. We will soon see the big four O's, until then just chill. Stanley, Moon, Song Hi(beach girl), Sung Min, Kimchee hold tight and hold back. Summers come and go. No more gambling, don't drive down to AC! It's a waste of money even if you made a G. Keep the styles. Stanley no more pt's, they are addictive. SM no more blue hawaiian, actually keep it burning. Song Hi no more alternative things, remember LL. Moon, you are the one that messed with Big Boss, thanks. It's okay we'll get him some day. As BBM said: "It's the simple things, not the money things." You people know it! Stan. Manatan. Bul go gi. Word to the biggest most unproductive summer ever. Cost 5.2 Gs. or 3.5Gs? I don't know.

4-8-91 I landed.

Brian Na, William Na, Sung Hur, Inwoo Lee, Daisuke Karashima. The good old days, don't forget Hurry IOU a pt. My people in NJ we'll get back together as soon as these things end. Study hard!! Keep it low and do your math. Jee Ho Kim no 1600 I am disappointed. Didn't get deported? Good. We all be back, some day. Leonia is a good place now that K's are the majority. Keep the KP together. Our people will triumph. All you did a good job staying out of the mess, maybe I'll learn, some day. It's real life, our lives are the real thing. Keep the connections live. To the future.

Sometime 93 I landed.

Willj19 and Mike Kelly keep it going. 8088, 80286, 80386, 80486, P54C, P55C, PPro. Sa'll good. 2, 4, 8, 16, 32, 64, 128, sdram, edo, fpm, budo. Keep hackin'. The "T" project has to be finished by summer '97. Magnets or software? Both! Ahaight. We all meet in DR, some day. Good luck in life. Great people both of you, very different, I like that. Willj19: 128 bit. Your dream system? 2G's? 32edo? Ultra Wide SCSI-3? Dual PPro 2007? Give it up! I'll just write you a ballad. Mike: The G thing's over. Snoop, Dre, 2pac? It's over for real. Keep those pets in control! They are all right. I'll get for DR '97, all three of us.

Brandon-Zippo in the Duck sauce. Outrunnin the law in the Volvo and pullin a "Dukes of Hazard" through the "DO NOT CROSS" Ribbons. Running to Harris Teeter. Next time your in the mood for Honey glazed ham....use your head first ya nitz!!! You won't believe the sign I saw in Lansdown, Caution/Ice patches immediately followed by brick mailboxes. Butt flexes in Physical Science. We've become a lot closer this year, partly due to you not having a car, but hey %#@! Happens. We've had a lot of good times. Road trips, party's, Lacrosse games(Some better than others), or just driving back to the lake in the middle of the night. By the way, HURDY GURDY. Anna- Hey my little cheeky monkey! Road trip up to Chapel Hill. PanPan. Brandon's nasty eating habits that make ya wanna puke. Coming home from Nancy's on Homecoming night. Shun Lee Palace(a.k.a. Drop your St Palace). When am I going to get my boots back? You know whenever 4:20 rolls around you and only you shall cross my mind. What I'm trying to say is, Anna will you marry me if Brandon doesn't? Mike- Whenever I need to do a little male bonding, or just need to shoot a live animal for kicks, your the man to see. The G's- I've read over the hand book twice and I think I'm ready to become a member. Bobbo-Lose the hemp necklace friend. Its either preppy or hippie, you can't go both ways. JD- I don't think I've ever, or will ever see anyone jump over an entire car hood like you did....Thank you for that experience. Andrew P. & Co. When I get back from Wherever I end up we'll have to get together and toss the salad around a bit. Hey Pleasant let me borrow your Moonstone if I go to Switzerland next year. Avery- Ahh to my Yearbook Companion. "What was that?" "Oh nothing, we just hit a Zebra." The dirty drawer!! PanPan. WELL COOTERS AND CODDERWATERS!! Freebird and Country Club. If either of us ever have anymore women problems, we'll have to sit down with JD and have a long talk and suck back a couple those desert animals. Lindsay- If your ever in the mood to go walkin down the railroad tracks in the middle of the ghetto with a couple of nice expensive camera's, call me up. I appreciate you always giving me your honest opinion about my "problems". Being out front with people may offend some, but I personally feel it is one of your best qualities. Jennifer P.- It's been fun, yet I still have a hard time figuring you out. You have a difficult time finishing your sentences on the phone misses A.D.D. Remember doing 360's on the ice in January and you screaming your head off. The Checkers game. Anyway say hey to Lake Norman crew for me. Coach Fader- Aside from my parents, your the "grown up" that's closest to me. No greater a mentor have I ever had. Whenever I would get in trouble in school, I would always think. "What's Coach Fader gonna think?". I admire and respect you to the highest degree. Mr. Hennessey- Sorry for leaving my camera in my car on several occasions. By the way sorry about that note incident. Scott- Watching Phil's "tapes" at your house after Bush. Water skiing at the lake. The long journey to the Harris Teeter a 2am only to pick up a couple of necessities such as a baby pool, a shopping cart, a 45 mile an hour speed limit sign, a couple a' cantaloupes, oh and every bodies mail. I love you, you huge 200 pound, touchy feely redneck. I hope to see you at App. Or at least visit. Shannon- Nights out with the guys. Sharing problems with each other about the opposite sex. I won't feel sorry about people putting stuff in your car(Such as leaves and dog doodoos) until you lock it. Giving you wedgies while making fun of the red underwear you wear everyday. Shannon, I'll miss you wherever you and your enormously big teeth may go. Cameron- Hanging around with you and Clay. Making Nancy think you and I were lovers. Discussing the safety qualities of your Volvo. Showing you my Swiss manhood Matt P.- (also known as...Mr. Magoo!) You trying to convince me that the baseball is a finer sport than LACROSSE. Getting my CD's stolen at your house while we were up stairs talking about what CD I wanted to get next. Afternoons at Mickey D's after summer school. The little incident with 20 of Charlottes finest, I Paramedic and I Fire truck. Egging the pigs and setting a new world land speed record on Glencagles Road in the Volvo, all while Avery kicks the headrest out of the seat and lodges it in my lower back and still managing to scream "It was a cop, Oh god it was a cop", almost to the point of wetting his pants. Matt G. (formerly known as Lankey). Lacrosse camp. Having long in depth conversations about how the nice guys never get the women. Don't lose faith my friend the women know what's best and they'll come around as soon as they come to there senses. And last but not least Tina G.- Poptart? Homecoming-Teaching you how to use chopsticks at Nakato's and trying to convince you that sushi is actually good food. Calling you from Greensboro on a pay phone with a handful of change and wishing you a happy birthday on your answering machine (although you didn't get the message). Prom- Driving around trying to find out where the party was only to go back to Rob's house so Kara and I could sleep for an hour and driving you home at 3am. I love your parents by the way. Not to mention the 50's room. Watching Independence Day with you when you had to stay home. Staying up till 5am to make sure you put your eye drops in every hour on the hour. I don't know if you'll ever realize how I felt for you. I've always had a hard time opening up no matter how strongly I felt for you. I guess I'm the type of person that doesn't pursue something until I'm completely convinced it's a sure thing. And on several different occasions I definitely wasn't sure how you felt toward me. Maybe I should have triedharder way back when. Oh well I guess it's to late to change that now. By the way, I still have that Dalmatian you gave me. You still got yours????

Word to all my crew...

Max: I don't know where to start. We've been friends since the sixth grade. Claiming you like know. The ferry when I asked you out. Claiming your office. Our little fights. On the bus in the sixth grade when you kissed me and added a little something extra. Cooking for your birthday every about those nasty skis. Sitting at snowshoe, moaning doomy dooms. The beach for the past two summers, the pool, night swimming, going fishing w/our dad. Sorry you never got to go to mine. The Netherlands for 1 year. On Jan. 20, no I didn't forget. Our first concert → Dave Matthews the first one not the second one. I will never know why effin hates me. Sam in chemistry → she's your up, just she I am glad we went to the park on September the 10th. It was a very good decision and I will always love you in a special way even if we are not friends. If we do not then you better keep in touch.

Max E: Matt Parader. I don't know what's going to do without me. Stuff like getting busted by the cops, the car-de-ec, and adding lies will put you in trouble. Also you better watch out how many ladies you get to know better on me trip. You've done some crazy stuff like yelling CAROLINE out the window at the "Y". Playing tennis pingpong and pool → double or nothing. Driving your butt crazy where, but I didn't mind, talking smack about people. I don't understand too much, the skater, come and give me a hug, that won't work because, do I look like a dragon, no do I? You know who I'm talking about. The Heavy D meetings. Going bowling on school nights. Sharing the experience at Paul's, the green carpet in Revere. Showing squirrels. The Dave concert. I'm sorry she kissed me, I just played along. The last goes on, it has been cool the past couple years you better come visit me in college and good luck. Frank X: I know I shouldn't be writing this because you know Sam and her spots will get mad. From their caught at "Telling hands", who knows what else. Thanks for humoring me in AP chem. In talking smack on my calculator and about my w. Jeanie, even though you are the leader, and telling me about all your lovers → DG Vanderbeer Rob just kidding. I'm not a whopper I don't care what you say. It was fun in the Netherlands w/you and your porn channel, my full moon, and your back post lover. In the future, try not to get yourself in trouble, like you almost did at the DUI checkpoint and also try not to flirt/wipe in your English class like even it and stuff. I came yesterday you will out put dinner down. Good luck next year, maybe you, rob, me, and another one go to a movie over the summer in something. you right.

Max G: You should skip a fat year. Who keeps farting in English class? Rolling horses, eggs! Thanks for always being the d. a. going to sat's and concerts. Don't become a strange going off to college. Sometime you and me will need to go see some NASCAR. Daniel G: The ECU game taking laps. Jacket. What happened at Lynchburg again. Trent: Trying to put the egg from under the rock. I was so glad you made me join the team to be a receiver and catch all of your passes. Talking crap on the internet at Geoff's house. That fish you caught should have been mine. Rob: Tenth grade homecoming → hating summer. Joking. Walking down your street, checking people out in the grocery cart, dragging around that tuby pool. After the Dave Matthews concert, thanks for taking pictures and you can keep that blue blanket. Reeb: Playing football football in your backyard. Going to the mall. Getting in fights with Mark and Matt. I was never head's great movies. The beach → live days in a row, the two twin-sax on my porch listening to the cassette, the downtown shower. The last in the size. Forget fire. Shining → morning homecoming. It has been cool since you came in the eighth grade keep in touch. Shelley: Never take me fraking racist again! Hey look there's a whale! Domino pizza? Thanks for letting me use your shower. Somebody's grandpa → I haven't understood a word he said yet. Track. Thanks for always being there to solve my Mary problems and for being a good friend.

Thank you, married, and continue for always supporting me through out high school. I appreciate what you have done for me over the past 13 years and I promise will come back from college and visit.

Mom, Dad, Steph, Dan, Dusty, all you France people (I'm too lazy to list your names), the class of 1997, and all my other friends and family - Thank you for all you have ever done for me. You've meant a lot to me, and I'll never forget you. I'm going to miss you, so you better stay in touch. I love you all.

Friends are friends forever
If the Lord is the Lord of them.
And a friend will not say "Never"

Breathe, breathe in the air.
Don't be afraid to care.
Leave but don't leave me.
Look around and choose your own ground.
For long you live and high you fly,
And smiles you'll give and tears you'll cry,
And all your touch and all you see,
Is all your life will ever be.

Dec. 3, 1996

To All those who Care,

The other day as I walked outside and watched the white exhale emerge from my lips to rise into nothing, I dreamt. I envisioned myself asleep in my room when a man, wearing a simple black-and-white suit emerged from my closet and hovered above me. He proceeded to cut a perfectly round hole through my abdomen that was about eight inches wide. The man then left my room, hurried down the stairs, and left the house forever. I awoke the next morning disoriented as usual. I did not, however, see my newly formed mark, or rather hole, until emerging from the shower. I was somewhat surprised at first, but this, of course, led immediately to adoration. Who could not feel anything but admiration for something this precise and beautiful? The hole now allowed anyone to see straight through my skinny body. That ended the first part of the dream. There were two other images that also accompanied it. In the first, I walked down the sidewalk, alone except for two of my male classmates. They were playing a game of catch with a tennis ball, but this game of catch was through me. (this was possible since the front and back of all my shirts had the same hole) The second image was that of my friends' faces. Whenever they walked with me and only when they walked with me, a queer smile would appear on their faces. The grin screamed their pleasure and dignity, for they knew that their companion was one of the few with a hole. This is what I dreamt the other day as I walked in the cold watching my exhale float off into the sky.

In the mindless tradition of these boxes, I feel I must leave a quote or two. Mine, however, will not spring to life from phish, seaweed, or any other aquatic life (a crumpled brow?), but rather my first comes from the brilliant mind of Albert Camus. "Today we are always ready to judge as we are to fornicate." (from The Fall-it's a good book, try reading it) And of course, "For everything to be consummated, for me to feel less alone, I had only to wish that there be a large crowd of spectators the day of my execution and that they greet me with cries of hate." Next the mind of Franz Kafka. "The long needle does the writing, and the short needle sprays a jet of water to wash away the blood and keep the inscription clear. Blood and water together are then conducted here through small runnels into this main runnel and down a waste pipe into the pit." Finally a brief one from Jean-Paul Sartre, "Hell, that's other people."

I thank all of my teachers who guided, amused, and most importantly challenged me.

My friends, skrół and non-skrół alike (that's you too, cross country team), you thrill me, and you will never stop. Thanks for being - yourselves.

enjoy life

"The true test of a man's character comes when he is literally buried with problems, obstacles and roadblocks, and there is no possible way he can see to reach his goal. His main objective becomes just surviving. If this man can find the inner strength to keep his goal in sight even in times such as these, he will persevere. If not, he'll join the crowd and quit."

"You bring the drinks for the camping trip." Oh, gosh. What can I say. I used up your 10,000 characters of senior-quote before this book came out (I think you know what I'm talking about). I was serious then, and I mean it now. Thanks for your friendship, and ditto everything you've always said. You know what I mean. Oh, and here's one more thing-->hug-> I think you needed that. Hang in there. John, you're a great person. T-Bone: Trip to App, everything closed, country, jazz, Josh "can you turn the heat up?", camping trips, "I've got the backpacker's kitchen sink here.", combo practice, "Paul, can you play a little LOUDER?", GOD, Cajun Queen, I overtyped. I'll miss you much--you've always been, well, my trombone player... Just like a combo sounds empty without a trombone, the gap of friendship that you filled in my life will be noticed when it's empty--thanks for your friendship. Let's keep in touch somehow. I don't know where I'll end up next year, but I have a feeling I'm right down the road. JP: when did you program his radio? Rick-O-Meade! Do you have my computer yet? A light exists in spring
Not present on the year
At any other period.
When March is scarcely here

A color stands abroad
On solitary hills
That science cannot overtake,
But human nature feels.

It waits upon the lawn;
It shows the furthest tree
Upon the furthest slope we know;
It almost speaks to me.

Then, as horizons step,
Or noons report away,
Without the formula of sound,
It passes, and we say:

A quality of loss
Affecting our content
As trade had suddenly encroached
Upon a sacrament.

Mom and Dad - I cannot thank you enough for always supporting me in all my endeavors. You were always there for me to provide unconditional love and understanding. You never asked more of me than my very best. There are no words to express my love. Thanks.

Daniel - "If I can fix your computer, I can make world peace." Too bad we had to scrap the computer. Oh well... You're the special kind of friend who can accept a person for who they are. You can make a guy feel better no matter what the situation. If there is one person I appreciated for all their quirkiness and willingness to listen to my rantings it is you.

Paul - Mr. Testosterone himself. Grunt. Your idea of fun: lets strap lots of heavy equipment to our backs and disappear into the woods for an unspecified amount of time. You should always enjoy yourself no matter what. Here's to you-- a big, hairy, trombone playing, grunting, manly man.

Brian - "Brain" There are not many people willing to carry around a can of spam everywhere they go. Nobody's quite sure why you did, but you did. What a statement you made!--I've snapped. How many times I heard, "What do you mean he's the valedictorian." Glad to know you.

Elizabeth - Will see you at ASU along with Paul. Boone may never be the same. I have really enjoyed seeing you along with the rest of the gang in the morning. Not many people can make a morning at school seem less painful than it is. Keep smiling.

Capper - You are kinda crazy. Good--makes life more fun. Will see you.

Kate, Daniel, Katie, John, Rosalyn, Page and Trav-o - Keep making beautiful music. At the very least appreciate it. I have always found your company something to look forward to. I should see you all again soon.

Teachers - I hope to never forget the lessons you taught. Some were more significant than others. You have inspired me. I apologize to those of you who did not escape my wrath without a few more gray hairs. It's normal. Thank you all.

The rest of the gang - There are too many people who have influence my life in one way or another to mention. Here is a collective thank you. I will always try to keep in mind what you have shown or taught me. Thanks for laughing at my jokes.

Jazz Band, the trips, the camaraderie, the friends, the morning dash for the coffee pot, the various organizations, etc... - I thoroughly enjoyed you all.

goodnight, to every little hour that you sleep tite may it hold you through the winter of a long night and keep you from the loneliness of yourself heart strung is your heart frayed and empty cause it's hard luck, when no one understands your love it's unsung, and i say goodnight, my love, to every hour in every day
goodnight, always, to all that's pure that's in your heart goodnight, may your dreams be so happy and your head lite with the wishes of a sandman and a night light be careful not to let the bedbugs sleep tight nestled in your covers the sun shines but i don't a silver rain will wash away and you can tel, it's just as well

goodnight, my love, to every hour in every day
goodnight, always, to all that's pure that's in your heart

TREVOR CHERRY

7:00AM: Sleep... Roll over in sleep.

8:00: Wake up. Get out of bed and get dressed.

9:00: Go in and my mom has 3 slices of bacon, 3 eggs, and 3 pieces of toast ready for me (or I have a lot of cereal.) Get on my first lawn.

10:00: Start the lawn- cut the grass

11:00: Finish the lawn, weed eat, edge, and blow it. Get on to the next lawn.

12:00PM: Create them a new gravel pathway out back to go into their garden.

1:00: Have lunch. Eat, eat, eat!!! Got to go to Home Depot to get some more pine bark for the next yard.

2:00: Time to spread out the pine bark and plant some plants for thier new front bed, after I fill in that nasty hole in the back.

3:00: Gotta' go wash and wax a car for another customer. Startin' to get tiring.

4:00: This car takes a while, lots of kids take their tole.

5:00: My next customer wanted their windows washed and stepping stones put around the house to the pool. Lots to do.

6:00: Time to start handing out pointsettias to my customers. I by them every year from the Senior Class.

7:00: Time to eat. Mom made some spaghetti for us.

8:00: Gotta finish handing out my plants before it gets to late! I need to keep the customers satisfied.

9:00: Time to look at my truck magazines. I've got my truck all picked out. A red Toyota T-100, perfect for my work.

10:00: Now it's time for bed. I need my sleep for tommorow!

Q: What is your business and how did you come up with the idea? Tell us all about it!

A: "My business consists of anything having to do with yard work. I do everything from mowing the lawn to spreading pine needles and raking leaves. It all started when I stole the lawn mower from Trigg when he was mowing the back yard, and I haven't stopped since then. I generally put 1-2 hours in a weekday, and 7-8 hours a day on weekends. I have about 16 jobs that I do every week, but during the summer I have about 20 jobs, plus any odd jobs. The three main reasons I do this job is for the pleasure of working outside, seeing the finished product, and of course...the money! My business is not just restricted to my neighborhood, so if anyone needs work...Call: 365-8559."

Mary Ann,

What a pleasure you have been to your family and your many friends. You are always a joy to be with. We truly enjoyed being your #1 cheering section. It gave us such pleasure over the years to attend all your recitals, basketball, and softball games and the many tennis matches. You were always such a good sport both on and off the court. You never played a game that you weren't a winner in our eyes. You were always a shining example for others. Our only regret is that time flew by much too quickly and we'll have so much less of your time in the future. Your future! Enjoy your life and as always keep true to your dreams.

We love you so very much,
Mom, Dad, Wayne and Suzanne when things go wrong as they sometimes will, when the road you're trudging seems all uphill when the funds are low and the debts are high, and you want to smile, but you have to sigh, when care is pressing you down a bit, Rest if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns, as everyone of us sometimes learns, and many a failure turns about, when she might have won had she stuck it out; Don't give up though the pace seems slow

you may succeed with another blow. Success is failure turned inside out - The silver tint of the clouds of doubt, and you never can tell how close you are
It may be near when it seems so far; so stick to the fight when you're hardest hit - It's when things seem worst that you must not quit.

Dear Caroline,

Few things exist in the realm of the untouchable Two barefoot, duck feather pulling, sticker naming, matching pink and red Izod sweater wearing, agriculture announcing, hole-under-the-fence digging children walk there side by side, watching the world through four upturned big blue eyes, smiling one smile. As they walk into their own lives, their paths diverge to each pursue her own life and dreams, and although they no longer can hold hands wherever they go, the shared footsteps remain, imprinted in the dust of their memories forever.

I will always love you, always be proud of you, and always be your sister.

"THE GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT WAS AT FIRST AND FOR A TIME A DREAM. THE OAK SLEEPS IN THE MORNING; THE BIRD WAITS IN THE EGG; AND IN THE HIGHEST VISION OF THE SOUL, A WAKING ANGEL STIRS. DREAMS ARE THE SEEDLINGS OF REALITIES. IN ALL OF MAN'S AFFAIRS THERE ARE EFFORTS, AND THERE ARE RESULTS, AND THE STRENGTH OF THE EFFORT IS THE MEASURE OF THE RESULT. Dear Brian, Hold fast to your dreams!

Within your heart
Keep one still, secret spot
Where dreams may go,
And sheltered so,
May thrive and grow
Where doubt and fear are not.

Within your heart
For little dreams to go!
